

My local Klove station, Salem/Corvallis/Albany (KLVU) 107.1, is in the public interest because it serves my local community by broadcasting timely information and quality programming and music.

It would be a loss to the community to lose the resources broadcasted by Klove through KLVU and a detraction to lose its services. I derive much benefit and support from their programming and it improves my quality of life.